Kurzbeschreibung

Die Bay City Rollers waren die erfolgreichste »Boygroupp« der Siebziger Jahre nach den Beatles. Über 100 Mio. verkaufte Platten, Millionen hysterisch kreischender Mädchen in Ekstase auf der ganzen Welt – die »Rollermania« übertraf einfach alles. Bubi Heilemann hat die schottische Band vom Beginn ihrer beispiellosen Karriere bis über ihre Trennung hinaus begleitet und war wie kein anderer ganz privat und hautnah dran. Er zeigt die Menschen hinter dem sorgfältig aufgebauten Image der süßen Boys, bei denen die Fans reihenweise in Ohnmacht fielen. Synopsis

With over 100 million records sold, the Bay City Rollers provoked fan hysteria in millions of ecstatically screaming girls all over the world - Rollermania ruled. Their most popular song "Bye Bye Baby" still gives many people goosebumps. Their songs topped the charts worldwide, and they scored number one hits on US single and LP charts, a feat managed previously only by the Beatles. Bubi Heilemann had a closer relationship with the band than any other photographer. Bubi shows the real people behind the carefully constructed image of the fresh-faced Scottish boys in whose presence whole rows of fans fainted in ecstasy. The photos in this unique book are drawn from Heilemann's personal archives and include many previously unpublished images that show the Rollers the way they really were. The book includes a "Rock'n'Roll Love Letter" from Les McKeown, lead singer of the Bay City Rollers: "Out of all the people I got to know over the course of my career, only one or two could be called true friends. One of them is Bubi Heilemann. We got along right away, shared a sense of humour and a certain passion for beautiful women. Bubi followed the incredible phenomenon that was BCR around the globe with his camera. He caught a glimpse of the fashionable, unusual and sometimes even dark and sinister world of the Bay City Rollers. Bubi was one of the very few people who had unlimited access to this world. Only few people know the truth about the Bay City Rollers - one of them is Bubi Heilemann."
