Bulky body in a compact form, with oversized details sets The Ecogear Rock Claw apart from traditional creature baits. Made from natural sinking material, its own weight gives it great casting potential. Being able to change the fall speed through the water to match the current situation is a great advantage of ROCK CLAW. Set up on a Texas rig or Carolina Rig, around structure or rock bottom the life like body appeals to the target fish. On top of this ECOGEAR's scent and taste works wonders in the water, to bring the new generation of creature bait lures.
